

Honored for service

The 24th Annual Awards Ceremony of the Nassau County Auxiliary Police was held on April 19 at the Nassau University Medical Center in East Meadow with five members of the Five Towns Unit 109 for their service in 2006. Pictured from left are Auxiliary police officers Ivan Goodstein (300 Hours Award); Daniel Gluck (500 Hours Award); Nassau County Police Commissioner James H. Lawrence; Auxiliary/Capt. Leo Goodman, Commanding Officer of Unit 109

(300 Hours Award); and David Spier (300 Hours Award). Now shown is Spyros Vasilakis (500 Hours Award and 10 Years Service) The Five Towns Auxiliary Police (Unit 109) patrol in marked vehicles helping to make the 5T community a safer place to live by being "eyes and ears" for the Police Department. They provide crowd control and security at parades and special events. They also serve during disasters and other emergencies. Further information is available at our website www.FiveTownsAuxiliaryPolice.org.